

AUTHORITY TO PROSECUTE

On October 29, 2004, Applicant filed a revocation and power of attorney appointing the undersigned counsel as its representative and revoking all previous powers of attorney in the subject application. Applicant has confirmed that the filing is currently part of the application record. The Office, however, continues to communicate with prior counsel of record. Applicant requests that, in accordance with the filed revocation and appointment of attorney, the Office send all communications to the address associated with Customer Number 29,484.
